MUSIC

The SRJC Chamber Singers will sing:
All of Us, from Considering Matthew Shepard by Craig Hella Johnson
Dr. Jerome Fleg (directing); Nancy Hayashibara, accompanist;
Nathra Kem, percussion

What could be the song?
Where begin again?
Who could meet us there?
Where might we begin?
From the shadows climb,
Rise to sing again;
Where could be the joy?
How do we begin?
Never our despair,
Never the least of us,
Never turn away,
Never hide our face;
Ordinary boy,
Only all of us,
Free us from our fear,
Only all of us.
Only in the Love,
Love that lifts us up,
Clear from out the heart
From the mountain's side,
Come creation come,
Strong as any stream;
How can we let go? How can we forgive?
How can we be dream?

Out of heaven, rain,
Rain to wash us free;
Rivers flowing on,
Ever to the sea;
Bind up every wound,
Every cause to grieve;
Always to forgive,
Only to believe.
Most noble Light, Creation's face,
How should we live but joined in you,
Remain within your saving grace
Through all we say and do
And know we are the Love that moves
The sun and all the stars?
O Love that dwells, O Love that burns
In every human heart.
This evergreen, this heart, this soul,
Now moves us to remake our world,
Reminds us how we are to be
Your people born to dream;
How old this joy, how strong this call,
To sing your radiant care
With every voice, in cloudless hope
Of our belonging here.

STUDENT COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Osmarth Espejo Enríquez

Osmarth Espejo Enríquez is a proud first-generation student graduating with an associate degree in Communications. Originally from Texas, Osmarth relocated to California and found a new beginning through education. As a student, he's used his voice to advocate for equity and opportunity, speaking at the California State Capitol and representing the stories of students often left unheard.

Throughout his time at SRJC, Osmarth has been deeply involved with EOPS, a support program for students facing economic and educational barriers, and the Puente Project, which focuses on college access and leadership for Latinx students. He has also engaged in statewide advocacy efforts, helping lead conversations on access, identity, and representation. His passion for media and storytelling is rooted in his belief that communication can spark meaningful change—and that every student's voice matters. As the 2025 Student Commencement Speaker, Osmarth is honored to represent not just his own journey, but the courage, persistence, and collective triumph of the Class of 2025.

KEYNOTE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Tsione Wolde-Michael

Tsione Wolde-Michael is an arts administrator, historian, and curator. She is the founding director of the Center for Restorative History at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History. In 2022 she was appointed by President Biden to revive the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities -- an advisory commission tasked with providing cultural policy recommendations to the Executive Branch and relevant federal agencies. Her work in public history focuses on redress and restorative justice in museums through innovative approaches to community engagement, collections management, cultural heritage, and exhibitions. Her international work in Ethiopia, Mozambique, South Africa, and the United Kingdom has centered on collaborating with local art and public history institutions to reinterpret colonial collections. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Women and Gender Studies from Macalester College and her Master's in History from Harvard University.

"It is a distinct honor to speak at Santa Rosa Junior College's (SRJC) 2025 Commencement Ceremony. SRJC's record of academic excellence reflects the unique talents, perspectives, and ambitions of its students. I especially appreciate the chance to contribute to a community that so strongly values growth, inclusivity, and opportunity as part of its mission. As May approaches, I look forward to celebrating the achievements of our nation's future leaders, creators, and changemakers on their special day."

THE MEANING OF ACADEMIC DRESS

The wearing of academic gowns, mortarboards, tassels and hoods has been an integral feature of American commencement pageantry since the end of the nineteenth century. In Europe, this tradition originated during the Middle Ages. The early commencement ceremonies in our country were known for debates and orations given by the candidates to demonstrate their knowledge. The Academic Procession is a colorful parade with faculty in distinctive gowns from universities around the world. The hoods that are worn are fashioned of velvet and silk, their rainbow colors denoting the wearer's institutions and fields of study.

The velvet facing of the hoods indicates the field of study in which the faculty have received their degrees. The inside lining reflects the colors of the institution where the graduate degree was earned. The typical tassel worn on the mortarboard is black, gold or other colors signifying academic distinction.

The colors listed below are those used on the velvet facing of the Master's hood.
